2:33 P.M. — After losing in a 72-63 upset to Palm Beach Gardens Dwyer late Friday night, Las Vegas (Nev.) Bishop Gorman, ranked No. 16 in the country in USA Today's Super 25, came back early Monday morning only to be upset again.

This time it was upstart Reserve (La.) Riverside Academy topping the Gaels 59-51. The school opened just last year. Riverside led by 12 going into the fourth quarter, but a barrage of Gorman fouls and poor shooting by the Rebels at the line, allowed the Gaels to pull within five with less than 25 seconds remaining in the game.

"It was a great coaching strategy on their part to put our guys on the free throw line like that, and it almost came back to haunt us," Riverside coach Tim Byrd said.

The Rebels hit 13-of-27 free throws in the second half, shooting just 40 percent from the line for the game.

Junior Ricardo Gathers, ranked No. 25 in the Class of 2012 by ESPN, led Riverside scoring 15 points with 11 rebounds. Gorman junior Shabazz Muhammad, ranked the No. 1 shooting guard in the country by ESPN, poured in a game-best 29 points.

"I really wish we could have contained Shabazz a little better," Byrd said. "We tried, but that's just who he is."
