

Save energy and money.
Get a free Home
Energy Check.

CLICK HERE

VARSITY THE BLOG

Covering high school sports in Central Florida

« Pine Ridge taps Missouri man as football coach | Main | Milwaukee Brewers catcher Jonathan Lucroy helping Umatilla »

OCP handles Miami Dr. Krop in City of Palms consolation final

Boys Basketball — posted by steve ruiz on December, 22 2010 4:19 PM

Discuss This: Comments\(0\) | Add to del.icio.us | Digg it

Orlando Christian Prep's boys basketball team won the consolation final Wednesday at the City of Palms Classic in Fort Myers, beating Miami Dr. Krop 64-56.

OCP (9-3) placed three scorers in double figures, led by Adonis Burbage's 26 points. Isaac Cohen added 13, and Jordan Montgomery finished with 10.

Earlier this season, Dr. Krop trounced Winter Park at the Hoop Mountain Hoop Feast tournament at Windermere Prep and edged host Dr. Phillips in overtime.

Winter Park played Santa Ana (Calif.) Mater Dei in the third-place game at the City of Palms on Wednesday night.

WHICH PLAYER RECOVERED TO MAKE THE PLAY?
Rollover a player to choose

OB RECOVER
Post-game protein recovery.

About

Varsity the Blog is your home for the latest information and analysis on Central Florida high school sports from the Orlando Sentinel.

About the blogger | E-mail Varsity the blog

Subscribe to our blog via email

Enter your email address: